Botanical Art School of Melbourne
April 2024

Hello all,

I am so very keen to see you all and hope you have had a wonderful holiday break.

Classes with Jenny will be recommencing on TUESDAY 16th APRIL and will be weekly until the end of term on the 4th of June.

The room will be open by 8am for those who wish to beat the traffic and catch up with everyone.

We will begin with a discussion and show of the work you have done in the break or last term.

That is always a great way to get your brilliant minds working!!

I am yet to decide on what our subject focus will be for term two classes. I am putting it out there – if you have access to plenty of plant material of a suitable or interesting subject or theme that you would like to paint through, then please bring it in and get started!

I will also bring in subject material, and following on from our introduction on discussion, those who are starting a new painting, hopefully will be seriously motivated after our “Show and Tell”.

Can't wait, so will be very excited to see you all.

We have a wonderful group of teachers working here. Fiona McKinnon, Heather Whittle and also Miffy Gilbert....all most enthusiastic about their work and sharing their knowledge and skills for others to enjoy.

If you know someone who should be receiving this newsletter – or someone who would like to be there is now a “subscribe” button on my website to ensure everyone is in the loop at the same me.

Please go to the website and add yourself or a friend to the mailing list.

Thanks again to everybody for a successful term one. It really has been a delight for me to see you all reconnect after a long break and pleasing to see your addiction to botanical art is as strong as ever!

Jenny

Classes : Term 2

Jen's Tuesday Classes

9.00am – Start room is open 30 mins before class start time. Continue into afternoon
April 16th, 23rd and 30th. May 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th

Teacher: Jenny Phillips. $440 inc GST – Full term booking only

Returning experts(?) brave, with experience. Fine artists. Also very keen, hard working beginners!!

You will be given a range of drawing exercises to help you loosen up and for me to see where I need to focus my lessons.

Subject material will be provided, unless you are working on a masterpiece you need to finish.

You may wish to select something to bring along to class if you are in the middle of a painting. That's fine!

It's a great way to learn when you see different results and work from different minds!
